KINEGRAMS.

NEWS AND NOTES FROM EVERYWHERE.

Those showmen who are looking out for an attractive advertising throw-away, need not go any further than the handbill which we are sending out with this week's number of the KINETRADOGRAM advertising the Evening News waltz "Always Gay." We venture to think there will be a very large demand for these attractive little leaflets.

Our opinion as to the merits of "John Lincoln, Millionaire" has been rapidly endorsed by exhibitors. In spite of the hot weather, and the consequent decrease in receipts, bookings are coming in merrily by practically every post. If you are desirous of securing this production for your town you should wire at once.

Elsewhere in this number we give a list of our revised prices for Feature Films for releases from June 30th onwards. These summer prices have been arranged with a view to helping our friends the showmen during the slack period, and we feel sure that they will be appreciated.

Always alive to the advantages of adopting up-to-date inventions to simplify the various operations connected with the handling of a growing business, this Company has now installed the Dictaphone in all its offices. There is no doubt that the installation of this ingenious apparatus will tend to speed up correspondence.

THE LOOKER-ON.

CHEAP FEATURES FOR THE SUMMER.

Important reduction in Prices.

In order to meet the Showmen in some way over the matter of his expenses during the quiet season we have decided to make some important reductions in our quotations for feature films during the summer months. The prices are given below for the first six weeks from release date, and a comparison with our ordinary terms will show that there is a very considerable reduction all round. These prices hold good until further notice.

SOME PROBLEMS —AND A SOLUTION.

How can I keep my Summer Receipts up to Winter averages?

! ! ! ! ! ! ! !

By Booking WILL EVANS HARNESSING A HORSE!

? ? ? ? ? ? ? ?

But it's only 1,200 feet, and it costs £3 10s. for three days. I can get a two-reel Drama for that figure.

! ! ! ! ! ! ! !

Drama's good—but you can have too much of a good thing. Try a good thing of a different kind.

Price? If it PULLS 'em in, what's the odds?

Length? Candidly, Sir, do they want two or three-reelers this weather?

LATEST PURCHASES.

"THE INCRIMINATING HANDKERCHIEF."

Cines. 2,110 feet. Released July 7th, 1913.

This film is an excellent example of the famous Cines quality and tells of the numerous dastardly attempts to abduct a beautiful actress with whom the villain is infatuated.

First vacancy July 7th. £4 10s. three days.

"THERESA, THE ADVENTURESS."

Nordisk. 2,657 feet. Released June 30th, 1913.

A Nordisk feature is always a safe draw and this latest one will be no exception to the rule. It is a story concerned with the doings of jewel thieves, and their attempts to escape justice. There is a terrific finale when a tremendous explosion occurs, in which a 160 ft. chimney is amongst the buildings which are demolished.

First vacancy June 30th. £5 10s. three days.

"WARS RED RUIN."

Contl. 3,000 feet. Released June 30th, 1913.

One naturally expects from the producers of such clever work as "Sister Beatrix" and "The Bread of the People," something out of the ordinary, and the Continental Co. have successfully maintained their reputation in the present production which deals with the condition of modern warfare. That most modern weapon, the aeroplane, is used in a most novel and exciting fashion in this present story, for which we venture to predict an even greater success than the productions mentioned above.

First vacancy June 30th. £6 10s. three days.
